

NOTICE

Reporting Reasonable Suspicion of a Crime

All operators, employees, managers, agents and contractors of Living Center at Geneva South are considered “Covered Individuals” and have the following responsibilities and rights under Federal law:

If you reasonably suspect that a crime has occurred against a resident or other person receiving care at Living Center at Geneva South you must report that suspicion to local law enforcement and the NY State Department of Health. You may satisfy this requirement by immediately reporting to the Administrator, who will then file the reports to law enforcement and DOH within the following timeframes:

- No later than two (2) hours after it is first suspected that a crime has occurred if the suspected crime involves “Serious Bodily Injury” to the resident, or
- No later than 24 hours if there is no serious bodily injury involved.

Covered Individuals have the option of filing their own reports with law enforcement and the NY State DOH within these timeframes, but you are still required to immediately report to the Administrator

“Serious Bodily Injury” means an injury (i) involving extreme physical pain; (ii) involving substantial risk of death; (iii) involving protracted loss or impairment of the function of a bodily member, organ or mental faculty; or (iv) requiring medical intervention such as surgery, hospitalization, or physical rehabilitation.

WARNING: If you fail to report the reasonable suspicion of a crime, you may be subject to a civil monetary penalty, currently up to $379,386 and/or you may be excluded from participating in any Federal health care program (e.g., Medicare and Medicaid).

NO RETALIATION: Living Center at Geneva South will not punish you or otherwise retaliate against you for reporting the reasonable suspicion of a crime in accordance with the law. Examples of punishment or retaliation include: firing/discharge, suspension, demotion, threatening these actions, harassment, and denial of a promotion or any other discrimination against an employee in the terms and conditions of employment. In addition, Living Center at Geneva South may not file a complaint or a report against a nurse or other employee with a state professional disciplinary agency for lawfully reporting a crime.

YOUR RIGHT TO MAKE A COMPLAINT: You have the right to file a complaint with the NY State DOH if Living Center at Geneva South punishes you or otherwise retaliates against you for reporting the reasonable suspicion of a crime against a resident or person receiving care from Living Center at Geneva South. To file a complaint, contact the NY State DOH Nursing Home Complaint Hotline at 1-888-201-4563.

MORE INFORMATION: Please see The Long Term Care policy “Abuse, Neglect, Mistreatment and Misappropriation of Resident Property” or contact the Compliance Officer or the Administrator.
